Awesome! Can't wait to go on vacation again so Janise can come and stay with our girls! Very professional, really likes animals, and you could tell our girls really like her too! When she came to return our keys, they were so happy to see her!

Give them a try, but be sure to book early!

My experience with Lil' Chick Pet Sitters can only be described as excellent!!! After reading the Yelp reviews for their service, I sent Lil' Chick an email request to schedule a pet sitter for my cat. A.J. responded within two hours of my email and we scheduled a time for her to come over and meet my little guy.

I was worried because it would be the longest I have left my cat alone (in almost 10 years), but I quickly realized that my cat would be in good hands. He took to A.J. right away during our initial meeting and I was very impressed with A.J.'s preparedness and thoroughness. The week I was to leave my cat got quite sick and ended up going on antibiotics. This was no problem for A.J. - she was able to administer his daily antibiotic and regularly sent me emails and pictures to keep me up to date with how he was doing.

It was a wonderful experience. I came home and my cat was happy and doing very well. I would use Lil' Chick again in a heartbeat.

Great service and A+ recommendation. I had Rachel and she was early to the consultation meeting, then emailed me lengthy notes after each visit while I was on vacation. When I got home I found hand written notes describing when she came and what she did each day. Overall I felt my cats were very well taken care of.

She even helped brush my cat to help him overcome a skin infection and when I got back his fur looked fantastic!

Will continue to use them in the future and suggest you do the same.

We used a pet sitter for the first time and found lil' chick pet sitters via yelp. I called a few places and ended up choosing these guys based on my conversations with them, the reviews and the pricing. Rachael Vizzusi was great to work with, she came to visit before we left and from there we knew our dog was in good hands. She sent us daily updates and even watered our tomato plants without us asking.

highly recommend, we will use again.

We had such a great experience with Janise and Lil Chick. We don't leave our pack of 4 dogs to just anyone to watch, especially since two of them have special needs. But before we even left town, we knew Janise was going to be great with the dogs. Her passion and experience with animals came through in our initial interview. It gave us great peace of mind to get her daily email updates and reports of how the dogs were doing while we were gone. She is professional and is a genuine animal person. We look forward to having Janise stay with our dogs again soon and will recommend Lil Chick and Janise to all of our friends!

A previous pet sitting service I used was no longer returning my calls. I needed to find someone else to take care of my three cats. I go out of town frequently and my cats are extremely important to me. I have a hard time trusting their care to anyone.

I contacted Lil Chicks and Rachael returned my email within an hour! Her and I set up an initial consultation and I was immediately put at ease. After learning of her experience in pet care, I had total confidence that she could handle anything with my cats while I was away.

She has taken care of my little monsters on several occasions and I already have her booked for several more this year. I am totally relaxed knowing that she is there to care for them. My two boys love her! My little girl won't come out of hiding, but I know Rachael has spent time talking to her and comforting her. The boys always miss her when she's gone, and remind me for days that she plays with their toys more than I do! I also love the daily texts that I get updating me and the comprehensive note that I come home to.

Lil Chicks is fabulous and I feel 100% comfortable leaving my cats in their care.

I have used Lil' Chick Pet Sitters on two occasions and Janise was really great with my two older dogs. She seemed to like them and they seemed to like her.

GREAT...so, why two stars instead of five???

I originally engaged the services of Lil' Chick when my two dogs' regular nanny was not able to come in for a few days. I checked Yelp and the glowing recommendations intrigued me. It seemed to work out well at that time. However, there are a few days next week that our nanny again is not able to come in. (Janise had told me that all I needed to give her was 24 hours notice.) I immediately notified Janise last night and she had forwarded my email to AJ, the owner. Even with my giving four days' advance notice of the need for a mid-day potty walk for my dogs, neither Janise nor an alternate sitter were available to help me.

It is so time consuming and tedious to complete the much needed paperwork and interview candidates when one is searching for this type of service - after all, one wants to ensure that their precious pets will be taken care of properly and that their home will not be ripped off. I just found it disappointing and frustrating that they did not have another person available that could help me with such an easy task - just one brief mid-day potty walk.

I would think that with our current recession, Lil' Chick would welcome the business with open arms. It's horrible that they do not have enough staffing to accommodate the needs of their clientele. When I initiated services with Lil'Chick, they seemed eager to have my business. Now, I'm beginning to wonder whether I should start seeking a more reliable pet sitting service. I think it's just cruel, heartless and unreasonable to expect pets (especially an elderly pet taking diuretics) to stay at home alone, while one is at work, without even one mid-day potty walk!

I joined Yelp just so I could write this review based on my outstanding experiences with Rachael from Lil Chick.

I don't know anyone in the area that I could leave my two cats with, but I travel once a month for 3-5 days. I didn't want to board my furballs, so I did some online searching... I emailed a few other pet sitting services but their prices were wayyy too high. I mean, I'm happy to pay good money to ensure that my babies are taken care of. But the quotes I received were astronomical, and I was about to give up, until I got a heaven-sent email from Rachael at Lil Chick.

She responds to emails almost immediately. I'm still baffled by this. She doesn't get her emails on her phone-- but you think that she must because her responses come so quickly!

We set up an orientation meeting so that she could meet my devil and my angel, and she totally accommodated my hectic schedule. She arrived on time-- maybe even earlier! How impressive is that? Even though my naughty kitty hissed at her (probably because she was intimidated by the smell of other animals that Rachael takes care of), she was totally cool with it and we had a great visit.

I felt confident in my animal's safety when I left on my trip. Rachael texted or emailed me every day that she visited the cats-- that was really helpful for me, because I'm always too busy to answer my phone. When I returned home, she had written a thank you card and notes for everyday that she visited. So sweet!

Rachael's Pros:

- friendly, loves all animals (even the fieriest ones!!)
- honest and trustworthy
- reasonable rates
- minimal paperwork (emailed it to me on the first day!)
- outstanding communication skills (email/text/calls-- this girl is on top of her game!)
- willingness to drive to my apt to meet the kitties, grab a spare key, pick up a check, etc. Shows her dedication to the job.
- my kitties love her! my lovebug boy is attached to her because she pets him all the time, and even my vicious kitty is warming up to Rachael and greets her at the door anytime she comes over!

Rachael's Con's:

- none
- none
- none

Rachael is an exceptional young woman with a passion for animals and she's got the organization and communication skills, too. This Lil Chick is the best/only cat sitter I will ever trust my kitties with!

Thanks, Lil Chick!

Janise is awesome! I am a teacher so during the school year she comes by to walk my 2 dogs and pet the 2 kitties several times a week. When one of my dogs had a life threatening overdose and was at the vet for 2 weeks she was as concerned, if not more worried, than some of my best friends. She is great with the dogs, friendly, reliable, polite and a great pet sitter to have. I could not recommend Lil' Chick more highly. A definite win!

We have used Lil Chick Pet Sitters, and specifically Janise, twice in the last year when we have been away for overnight pet sitting. We have two (high maintenance :D) dogs and one (low maintenance) cat, and boarding isn't a great option for us (esp the dogs, they like their routine). Janise has been a wonderful person to have in or home both times, the dogs really like her and she is very attentive, polite and thoughtful. While we are gone we get emails and a phone call, this time the email had a picture even which was really great. I strongly recommend this very professional and above and beyond service for anyone who needs a petsitter, they are the best!

AJ is superb. I travel frequently for business and can often be called away on short notice. AJ has managed to accommodate my schedule every time and take care of my two cats. I feel bad about going away and leaving the cats but I feel slightly better knowing AJ is looking after them.

AJ actually spends time with the cats, she doesn't just rush in and rush out again. I think that's the key differentiator....

Great communications by email while I'm away keeps my mind at rest, and now that she has an iPhone, I get pictures too !

Going on vacation is fun for the people but not so much for the pets who usually get sent to a kennel. As we were preparing for our trip we looked at all different kind of options for our 2 high energy dogs (an Aussie Mix and a German Sheperd).

After researching pet services, we found Lil Chick Pet Sitters on yelp and called them about taking care of our furry kids for a little over three weeks while we were in Europe.

Rachael set up an initial meeting to introduce herself and meet our dogs. She arrived on time and immediately made friends with them, even our shy GSD ran right over to get petted.

While we were gone, Rachael took great care of our dogs and emailed regular status updates which is awesome when you are 6000 miles away. Not only did she take out the trash cans on garbage day, she even vacuumed the house (several times I think) before we came home! Our dogs were healthy and happy when we arrived back home and we could not be happier.

Lil Chick rates are quite reasonable and this was a great experience. We highly recommend Rachael and will be using her from now on for our dog sitting.

Janise is wonderful!!! When you first interview her, she is down to business and wants to know everything about your pet...EVERYTHING...which shows how serious they are about making your pet happy. I can't say enough nice things about how professional and loving she is with our babies.

Besides taking on our 4 high maintenance spoiled kitties and playing laser pointer with them, she also took on "Bullyben the Bunny that Attacks" our foster bunny with issues. We came home and they were all happy and healthy.

This is the second time we had her pet sit for us and I completely recommend Janise and Lil Chick Pet sitters, they are professional and you can tell that they take pet sitting seriously with your pets best interest at heart. Thanks Janise!!!! :)

I can already tell I'll be a long time customer of Lil' Chick Pet Sitters! I used to take my two Italian Greyhounds to Petsmart's hotels, but sometimes they came back panicky and dirty. One of the two dogs has a kidney issue that causes him to pee all the time, yes, its crazy. Anyway, he's better off staying at home because he can access the backyard, so we tried out Lil' Chick and we will not be going back to Petsmart!

I've been working with Janise at Lil' Chick, and she's been a dream. She is extremely knowledgeable about animal care and even knew the type of med we were giving to the dog with the kidney issue. She was happy to give him the pill at no extra charge (Petsmart charged $2/day for this so I was surprised she was ok with that!).

When we returned from our trip, we found our two dogs happy, clean, well-fed and for the one dog, medicated! Not only had Janise taken FABULOUS care of our dogs, but we'd also had an unexpected heat wave while we were gone, and she'd gone out and HAND WATERED our plants!!! I still can't believe she did that. So thoughtful!

I am a big fan of Lil' Chick and will be recommending them to everyone with pets who wants to travel!

I highly recommend Lil' Chick Pet Sitters! I have been working with Rachael for 2 years now and she has been awesome! I have 2 Frenchies, Jazzy & David. They love it when she comes to walk, play and feed them mid-day. Jazzy has special needs so Rachael ensures that she is taken care of and given plenty of love.

Since we are at work all day, I feel very comfortable that Rachael is there to give the kids a break. I can honestly tell that Rachael truly loves my kids as if they were her own. That is the kind of pet sitter you would want. Rachael is responsible, trust worthy and conscientious. Thank you Rachael!

Janise did a fine job caring for our cat while we were out of town for a few days, and emailed us frequent updates. Most importantly, she gave our cat her liquid medicine (which the cat absolutely hated). That's not something that just anyone would be willing or able to do.

This was our first time using any kind of pet sitter. To be honest, I don't know why we didn't do it before. A.J. was great - we gave her a call a week before we were due to leave the country for short vacation. She came round to our apartment a few days later to meet us and our very active feline, Zico.

We had to fill out the usual paper work, let her know on what days to visit and give her a spare set of keys. It was as straight forward as that.

Whilst we were away, we got a regular update via email on how the little fella was doing - we even got a couple of photos to see he was not missing us too much.

We'll definitely be using A.J. and her services again next time we go away. It's much more convenient than using a pet hotel, it's also cheaper, and probably less stressful on the cat.

A+ for A.J.

Where do I begin. We have used other pet sitters, such as Fetch and have been more than pleased. We recently moved and while there was a fetch rep in the area we decided to interview a few other services. From the moment Janise (pronounced Janeese) walked in the door for the "get to know your pet" interview - I felt right at home. She even offered to take us to the airport when we left (I am not sure if I should advertise that one :)

Let me set the stage, we were leaving for an extended trip, almost 3 weeks, to get married and a for a honeymoon. We have 3 very loving but high maintenance male dogs (aka "The Boys"), ages 6, 5, & 4. Janise sent us great updates everyday and here are some of the hurdles/things she did...

1. Put bows on the boys and took pictures during our wedding service 2,000 miles away so they would be there in spirit (and we felt it too).
2. One dog got a swollen eye and she took care of him without any additional/unseen costs - just what she spent on the benedryl and e-collar. She knew that while we will do anything for our pets, an unscheduled, after-hours trip to the emergency vet is large financial burden and used her (VERY THOROUGH) knowledge to make the judgement call.
3. A tree fell in our backyard and she offered to call the landlord and set up a time with him to come and cut the tree so she could be there with the boys and make sure they did not get out or hurt.
4. We got a "barking dog" warning from the city of sunnyvale - you can only imagine how, even with the best pet sitter in the world (which Janise is), your dogs get unhappy after 3 weeks of abandonment. She went to our neighbor and spoke with them because her primary concern was that an angry neighbor might do something harmful to the boys.
5. We have a bunch of fruit trees in our yard and we gave her free reign of the house (from washer and dryer to the DVD collection) so the boys would have as much company for the "abandonment" as possible. She made fresh fruit pies out of our fruit in the backyard and left one on the freezer for us - we are cooking it today and I can not wait!

The list keeps going but I am sure you have stopped reading by now. I mean, I have not even unpacked and I have already written the yelp review and paid the bill - that is how amazing the service was. I will never use another service again. I will schedule my vacations around Janise's availability. Her knowledge, love, affection and overall personality are just fabulous. THANK YOU LIL' CHICK AND JANISE FOR LOVING OUR BOYS JUST AS WE DO!

Sincerely, Marissa

FABULOUS-!!! Is all I can say -- if I could animate something that showed you jazz-hands whilst saying that, I would... unfortunately, yelp is not yet this sophisticated... yet.

AJ is a total animal lover who really cares about your pets. We have two cats that are very skittish ex-street cats who we rescued from the Human Society, and they did their version of "warming up" to her the first time she met them :) Great for us since we hate to board our girls, and also b/c AJ is great at making room on short notice too! Keep up the great service, AJ - we love you!

Janise Is Awesome!!!

My boyfriend and I were planning to spend a weekend in Tahoe, and we wanted an alternative to boarding for our poodle mix (kennels left her stressed and I felt like she wasn't getting enough one-on-one attention).

Even after getting recommendations from friends, we still didn't feel like we had found the right service. So we went on Yelp and found Lil Chick (among others). After interviews with a couple of services, we knew Lil Chick was perfect for us and for our pup.

We were a little nervous as this was our first time using an in-home pet sitter. But shortly after meeting Janise, she put my fears to rest. She was so courteous, knowledgeable, and professional. She had a binder that contained all of the licenses and info about Lil Chick. She could answer all my questions about the company. She had business cards and I could contact her directly. And most importantly, she and my dog hit it off right away.

We scheduled about 2-3 visits a day (walks, potty breaks, cuddle time, and feeding). Janise was very flexible and worked with our schedule to make sure my dog's needs were met. While we were away, she sent daily email updates and told me that I could call anytime. She even sent a Valentine's e-card "from our dog", complete with a picture of our little girl and my cupid teddy bear, as it was Valentine's weekend. How adorable!

Finally, when we got home, the house was clean (even vacuumed!), our dog was happy, and there was a cute Lil Chick calendar, plus a note "from our dog" that Janise hand wrote.

All in all, I would say that I received AMAZING service, and the cost was completely fair (even better than other services). I will most definitely call them again anytime we need a pet sitter. I completely trust Janise with my home and my little dog, and I can honestly say that Janise is truly wonderful. Lil Chick is as perfect as they come.

If you are looking for a sitter, look no further. I highly recommend them.

I highly recommend Lil Chick Pet Sitting. Janise sat for my cats recently, and she was great. I felt so comfortable leaving my cats under her care.

It's obvious that she loves animals and was really good with them when I met her. I have one cat who is super shy (formerly feral) and has always hid from previous pet sitters (so no one would pet her while I was away!). But Janise got her to come out and was able to pet her, which is really impressive.

She's very thorough and sends emails with updates, which I really appreciated. She understands the anxiety of leaving your pets. I have had many pet sitters before, and this was seriously the first time I felt really relaxed and comfortable about leaving my cats. Thanks for such a great service, Lil Chick!

I am absolutely thrilled with the services of Lil Chick pet sitters, esp. Rachael Vizzusi. We had to leave our two persian cats for about 5 days at home recently and did not want to board them. We wanted them to be in familiar surroundings at home and have some one come and check on them so they would not feel abandoned. This was the first time I had left my kitties alone and I was naturally apprehensive. However, Rachael proved to be a great choice. She set up an appointment to get introduced with them, sent us regular email messages with daily updates, communicated with us when I forgot to leave the grooming combs (my kitties are persians), took the initiative and asked me about it and brushed them. She is absolutely trustworthy and I came back to find my house exactly as I left it. The mail was also brought in. All in all, I felt her rates were very reasonable, her services were great and her presence in my house was a great relief to me.

I received a very nice message from the owner. Clearly there was a communication break down. But A.J was professional enough to seek my feedback, and she apologized.

Because of A'J's follow up with me, I would re-consider using Lil' Chick because she obviously values the feedback. And based on most yelpers the service they provide appears to be outstanding.

AJ (the "Lil Chick") ROCKS when taking care of animals! She truly takes the time and connects to your animals. We have two rats and a Betta fish. AJ had the boys come to her house, where they got to spend the long weekend with a client/guinea pig and AJ's other animals. She introduced us to her pet cats and house rabbit, and was patient with us while we over-explained our feeding routines and such.

AJ sent us several email updates, and it sounds like the rats had a great weekend! She was talking with our rats, petting them, putting them near the back door so they could look out into the yard. (Rats are very curious creatures!) They were happy, calm, and relaxed when we went to pick them up, and AJ's rates are very reasonable! She doesn't take too many animals at once so she can spend quality time socializing with the animals in her care, so she's not always available. Make reservations! We're so pleased, we've scheduled the rats to visit her again while out of town in August and then at our wedding & honeymoon in October. Thanks AJ!

I first read about A.J. and lil chick here on yelp. We were going on a 15 day trip and we didn't have anyone to watch our kitty. We came here and I instantly knew after checking her website and reading her reviews that she was great. We met to discuss all of the details. A.J. was extremely detailed bringing all the necessary documents. I knew after our first meeting that we weren't going to have to worry about our kitty while on our trip. She is SO trustworthy. Someone you feel strangely comfortable letting in your house.

I have to say that A.J. goes above and beyond what I could have ever asked for. She emailed us a few times during our trip and kept us in the loop with what was going on with our kitty. She understands the anxiety that a person can have while they are away from their child (kitty).

I would highly recommend A.J. and Lil Chick to all my family and friends.

A.J. is the best pet sitter! We found Lil' Chick Pet Sitters through the Willow Glen Times - they were voted best pet sitter and the distinction is well-deserved. A.J. came to our house at a time convenient for us (later in the evening) and our little Sofie took to her immediately! Since Sofie is our only "child", we want the very best for her and I trust A.J. to take care of her as her own dog. In addition to the usual walking, feeding, and playtime, A.J. goes above and beyond and gives us a daily report of Sofie's activities and notes any special things like some excessive sneezing (allergies) or a little 'accident' in the back corner (we're still housetraining). A.J. is very responsible and very customer service-oriented. I have called her at 10pm the night before for an emergency dog sit the next day and she has always been completely accommodating. We highly recommend A.J. and her Lil' Chick pet sitting services!

Lil Chick Pet Sitters are great. Janise, one of their best, is excellent. Her care for the animals was like they were her own. She really cares about doing a good job. When we came back from our trip, I noticed the little things done, she cleaned the dogs water bowl and the lawn where the dogs go to the bathroom was clean. She emailed us everyday the status of our dogs. It was such a relief to have a professional on the job.

Look no further...AJ and Lil Chick Pet Sitters is the BEST hands down! I have used several pet sitters over the past 10 years; don't get me wrong they did a good job, but AJ...I give her an 11; she is fantastic, one of a kind :) Her love for animals shines through and through; her attention to detail goes beyond words. I can't tell you how nice it is to receive email updates, some with pictures :) while I am traveling. I know my boys are in GREAT hands. I am grateful to have AJ watching my boys. I highly recommend her to anyone who wants the best for their furry family members!
